WEST VIRGINIA BAR ASSOCIATION NOTES: NEWS OF THE PROFESSION¹

WEST VIRGINIA BAR ASSOCIATION NOTES.—The attention of members of the Association is called to the following resolution which was unanimously adopted at the last annual meeting:

“Resolved, That we approve the recommendation of the Committee on Professional Ethics that this Association take steps for the protection of the practice of our brother attorneys who enter the active service of the United States Government during the present war, and to that end we, as individual members of the Association, pledge our hearty cooperation by handling the business of such practitioners which may come into our hands, on such equitable basis as the particular work may justify, and to do our full part in preserving intact so far as possible the practice of these self-sacrificing patriots during their absence in such service. Be it further

“Resolved, That the secretary of this Association is hereby directed to send a copy of this resolution to each member of the bar in this state, with the request that the members of the profession not members of this Association shall likewise cooperate in the manner aforesaid.”

This matter is of importance in view of the large number of members of the bar who have entered military service.

WEST VIRGINIA LAWYERS IN ACTIVE MILITARY SERVICE.—The following list of West Virginia lawyers in the active service of the United States in the world war or in training therefor has been prepared by William B. Mathews, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals, to whom corrections or additions to the list, with present postoffice address, should be mailed:

MAJOR JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL:
George S. Wallace, Huntington

LIEUTENANT COLONEL:
Jackson Arnold, Weston

MAJORS:
E. B. Carskadon, Fairmont
H. H. Rice, Huntington

CAPTAINS:
Rollo J. Conley, Fairmont
George M. Ford, Charleston
